FATAL RAILROAD ACCIDENT. by a Rock Stide.

Wm. Aul., Brakeman, Found Lifeless in the Debris.

The night coal train on the Knoxville and Ohio Railroad, which left Coal Creek for Knoxville Thursday night, ran into a fearful obstruction in the shape of a rock slide, at Kirkpat-Vote early and understandingly, but rick's, between Coal Creek and Cline ton, about half past 9 o'clock, and the result was a frightful smash up, resulting, as was afterwards discovered, in the death also of Wm. Ault, a brakeman on the train.

The engine was partially thrown from the track and slightly crippled, but nine loaded cars were badly wrecked. Dennis Gleason, the engineer, walking part of the way and coming the rest on a dump, came to Knox-Bacon hams sold as low as 41 cents ville for another engine. When he per pound in the Cleveland market | left, search had been made everywhere for Wm. Ault, one of the brakemen, but he was nowhere to be found, and it was not known whether he had been I ft at Coal Creek or killed in the wreck. Still further search, however, resulted in the horrible discovery of his dead body in one coal car, with another turned over it. He was a married man and leaves a wife and family of small children. He was a son of Mr. G. W. Ault, a section boss on the line, and nephew of Capt. J. W. Ault, conductor and mail agent on the passenger train. Engineer Gleason took another engine out to the scene of the wreck and brought in his engine yesterday. Her He who would rise in the world, injuries can soon be repaired. Capt. bris. The regular passenger and mail train was unable to pass, however, and did not get to Knoxville till near 8

> No one else was hurt in the accident. Engineer Gleason reports that he struck another slide at Sharp's as he came in, and a track had to be constructed around that yesterday before the trains could pass.
